Brush City Council,

As many of you may know, my wife, Shirley and I have spent many of the past 29 years handling the vendor portion of the Oktoberfest. While in the past years assistance from the City of Brush has been great, there was something special about this year, which prompts my writing of this letter.

From the Mayor to all the workers who installed the tent, delivered and picked up picnic tables, moved the construction fence, helped direct traffic, and cleaned up later, there were many and I don't know the names of each person involved. Certainly not all were happy with the task but everyone was pleasant and polite, and we appreciate each one of you.

To Monte Torres, Cassandra Wilson, Lance Schwindt and Doug Kelly, your assistance and cooperation was beyond the call.

"Cooperation" is the magic word.

Thanks and God Bless.
